

KNITTED TISSUE HOLDER

The tissue holder is so handy to carry in your purse or pocket, takes very little yarn, and is quick and easy to make. Better be careful letting others see it – you'll find yourself with a list of friends who also want one!

MATERIALS NEEDED:

Small amounts of 3-ply sport yarn in two colors (indicated by A & B) (an excellent way to use up some of your “leftover” yarns.)

Size 5 knitting needles

Size 1 steel crochet hook

ABBREVIATIONS:

St (stitch) p (purl)

K (knit) sl (slip)

GAUGE: 6 sts equal 1 inch

With color A, cast on 30 sts, drop A, join B and work as follows:

Row 1: With B, * sl 1 purlwise, k 2, repeat from * across.

Row 2: With B, k each st.

Row 3: With A, * k 2, sl 1 purlwise, repeat from * across.

Row 4: With A, k each st.

Repeat these 4 rows until piece measures 6 ½ inches, end with A, bind off.

With A, work 2 rows sc (ease in slightly) across each end of piece, fasten off.

Fold over each end to meet in the center, and sew side seams together on inside. Turn piece to right side and steam press.
